

CONTENT

PORTFOLIOS

OSKAR BARNACK PRIZE 2006 8

From the shadows into the light. For nine months, Tomas Munita from Chile travelled around war-stricken Afghanistan. His award-winning photo reportage takes a penetrating look at a country on the verge of a new beginning

THE SWEDES 56

Photographer Felix Brüggemann feels comfortable in Sweden, his new home of choice. At least this is what his pictures tell: in a summer full of free nature and rockabilly youth culture

TECHNOLOGY

FOUR THIRDS 22

In cooperation with Panasonic and in time for photokina, Leica will bring out the first lens built for Four Thirds cameras. We sketch a picture of the main features of this digital standard

LFI EDITION 'ELEPHANT MAN' 30

Step by step, we follow the manufacturing procedure of a platinotype of Nomi Baumgartl's 'Elephant Man' – the purchase of one of these fine prints is open exclusively to LFI readers

DIGITAL ARCHIVING 38

The storage format is a deciding factor if digital picture archives are to survive into the future. The second part of our series describes what needs to be taken into consideration

M LENSES: 90 MM 44

Part 5 of the series dedicated to current lenses in the Leica M assortment: Apo-Summicron-M 90 mm f/2 Asph, Elmarit-M 90 mm f/2.8, Macro-Elmar-M 90 mm f/4

COMPOSITION IN BLACK AND WHITE 50

LFI ACADEMY The digital darkroom, Part 2: Using the lasso and magic wand to encircle specific areas of a picture

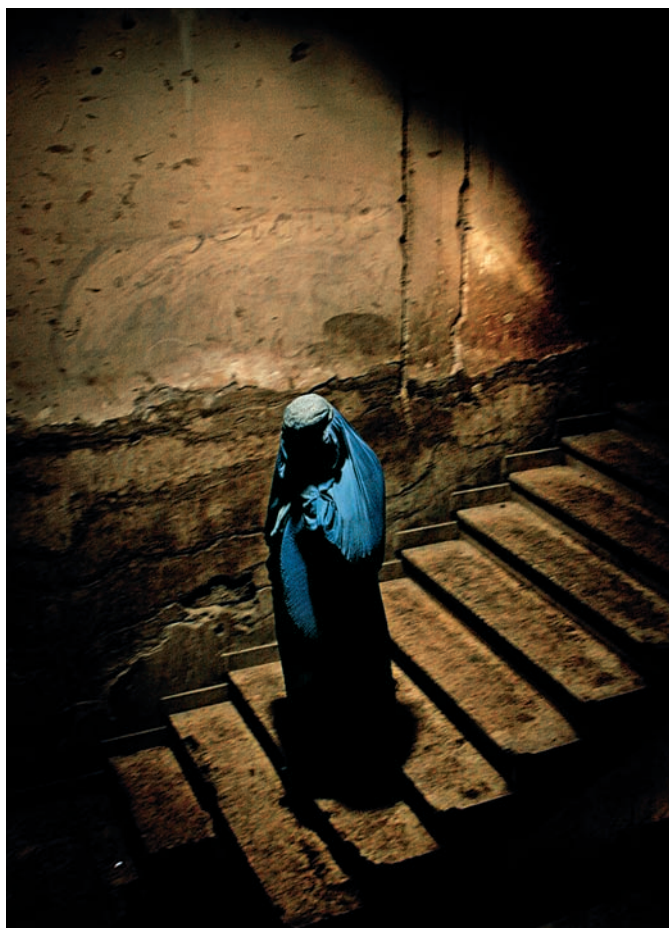

SECTIONS

EDITORIAL 4

PHOTO NEWS 4

EXHIBITIONS 20

PREVIEW / IMPRINT 66

Tomas Munita: Afghanistan, 2005 (page 8)
Four Thirds: Features and background (page 22)
Felix Brüggemann: Sweden, 2005 (page 56)

Cover photo: Tomas Munita, Afghanistan, 2005