

CONTENT

PORTFOLIOS

CHRISTOPH OTTO: THE ESTONIANS 6

Estonia, country in transition: somewhere between having one foot in Soviet history and one in the European present. Christoph Otto's portrait of a Baltic republic switches between poignant realities and vigorous optimism

WILLIAM MESSER: STERN GARDEN POETRY 52

Claude Monet's famous garden in Giverny is an ocean of colour – American photographer William Messer prefers sober black and white for his pictures from the park

TECHNOLOGY

R LENSES 22

LEICA KNOWLEDGE Purchasing advice: the best lenses from the past 40 years. Part two: 15 to 100 mm

LEICA – A CHANCE IN A CRISIS? 28

INTERVIEW How Leica aims to return to the profit zone – questioning Leica chief of communications, Gero Furchheim

TEST: FILMSCANNERS BELOW 500 EUROS 30

What introductory scanners are capable of

COMPOSITION 36

LFI ACADEMY Colour filters in black and white photography – part six: the polariser

BOKEH 40

LEICA KNOWLEDGE The advantage of understanding the unsharpness characteristics of Leica lenses

DIGITAL IMAGING 48

Intuitive and luxurious: testing Wacom's touch-sensitive Pen Display, Cintiq 21UX

LEICA COLLECTOR'S GUIDE 51

Review: A new edition of Dennis Laney's reference book

SECTIONS

EDITORIAL 4

EXHIBITIONS / BOOKS 18

PHOTO SCENE 64

PREVIEW / IMPRINT 66

William Messer: In Monet's Garden (page 52)
R lenses: From 15 to 100 mm (page 22)
Christoph Otto: Meet the Estonians (page 6)

Cover photo: Christoph Otto