

CONTENT

PORTFOLIOS

RINZE VAN BRUG 6

Fashion, portrait or reportage – the Dutchman has a soft spot for golden sheen, sepia tones and 1950s aesthetics. He expresses his artistic vision using a Leica M8 which he frequently equips with the Noctilux.

ANTHONY SUAU 54

Empty banks equals empty houses. With his series on the US economic crisis Anthony Suau won the World Press Photo Award 2009. LFI spoke with the American photographer on the state of reportage photography and the importance of vision.

TECH TALK

S SYSTEM: AUTOFOCUS 22

Leica equips its latest digital flagship with custom-made, proprietary auto-focusing technology and gives it a rather historical name: Correfot II. We focus on the details.

M PRACTICE: WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY 30

Tips from British photographer Brett on the aesthetic relevance of photojournalism for capturing that timeless wedding atmosphere.

DIGISCOPING 42

Two new tripods by Leica and a user friendly spotting scope adapter for the D-Lux 4.

DIGITAL IMAGING 44

Jeffrey Plomley's street shots are all about strong, radiant colours. This Canadian photographer tells us how he achieves his brilliant style using Lab mode in Photoshop.

SECTIONS

EDITORIAL 4

EXHIBITIONS 20

LFI READERS' GALLERY 64

PREVIEW / IMPRINT 66

Rinze van Brug: Fashion shoot for Dulcinée, 2008 (page 6)

Leica S2: A deep dive into the autofocus (page 22)

Anthony Suau: US economy in crisis (page 54)

Rinze van Brug: Fashion shoot for Montmartre, 2008