

CONTENT

PORTFOLIOS

FABIAN ZAPATKA 6

Two bikes and little luggage: Fabian Zapatka and Lorenz Schröter embark on a seven week bicycle journey across Georgia and Armenia, where Zapatka points his Leica MP at the ordinary, the unique, and the very odd.

ANNIBALE GRECO 52

They do the dirty work so others can have clean clothes to wear: the launders of the Dhobi Ghat in Mumbai. Annibale Greco from Italy captured impressions in black & white from India's biggest laundry house.

TECH TALK

NOCTILUX: NEW! 20

Reincarnation of a legend: The Noctilux-M 50 mm f/0.95 Asph, "the fastest asphere lens in the world," is ready to ship. We tested this new and improved masterpiece for its potential and user-friendliness at maximum aperture.

S SYSTEM: THE CENTRAL SHUTTER 28

A number of lenses in the Leica S2 system will optionally feature a central shutter, created – like so many components of Leica's new flagship – completely from scratch. We report on its development.

WIDE ANGLE FOR LEICA M: 16 TO 24 MM 34

From Tri-Elmar-M 16-18-21 mm f/4 Asph to Summilux-M 24 mm f/1.4 Asph: The seven lenses from the 16 to 24 mm segment cover all your wide angle needs. We compare their properties on film and on chip.

EQUIPMENT BAGS 50

Lowepro 160 AW and 250 AW from the award winning Classified Series are spacious and comfortable.

SECTIONS

EDITORIAL 4

EXHIBITIONS 18

LFI READERS' GALLERY 64

PREVIEW / IMPRINT 66

Fabian Zapatka: cab driver at lake Sewan, Armenia (page 6)
Focal lengths 16 to 24 mm for the Leica M (page 34)
Annibale Greco: Dhobis in Mumbai (page 52)

Fabian Zapatka: Small-town trains station in Dillijan, Armenia