

CONTENT

PORTFOLIOS

OSKAR BARNACK AWARD 6

On its 30th anniversary, the world-renowned photo prize was awarded twice – to South African photojournalist Mikhael Subotzky for his series 'Beaufort West' (Oskar Barnack Award) and to Dominic Nahr for his chilling war reportage from the heart of Congo (Newcomer Award, newly introduced).

STEWART WEIR 52

Happy beach goers, strapping young athletes and absent-minded kissers: English photographer Stewart Weir spent years photographing people on Brighton Beach. He reveals his declaration of love in classic black & white.

TECH TALK AND FIELD PRACTICE

DIGISCOPING 22

Super tele-photography with D-Lux 4 and spotting scope.

D-LUX 4 SAFARI EDITION 30

Special edition in olive green, complete with adventure bag.

EYE WITNESS: ENRIQUE SEGARRA 32

A chat with a living legend of Mexican photography.

INFRARED PHOTOGRAPHY 40

Ronald Breeze's surreal car show experience.

DIGITAL IMAGING 42

Photoshop: Black & white with gradient map.

LEICA EDUCATION 46

Actor Kai Wiesinger brings school kids closer to photography.

THE LEICA STORE CONCEPT 48

Leica's international dealerships on expansion course.

INVITATION: WORKSHOP IN NEW YORK CITY 50

Halloween in Greenwich Village.

SECTIONS

EDITORIAL 4

EXHIBITIONS 20

LFI READER'S GALLERY 64

PREVIEW / IMPRINT 66

Mikhael Subotzky: from the series 'Beaufort West', Oskar Barnack Award 2009 (above). Dominic Nahr: from the series 'The Road to Nowhere, DR Congo' (right), Oskar Barnack Newcomer Prize 2009 (page 6)

Digiscoping with D-Lux 4 and Apo-Televid 82 (page 22)

Stewart Weir: water everywhere – couple in Brighton (page 52)

Cover photo: Mikhael Subotzky