PORTFOLIOS

JACOB AUE SOBOL 8

By train from Moscow to Beijing, equipped with a brand new Leica M Monochrom and Apo-Summicron-M 50 mm f/2 AspH combo: a stirring series in black & white.

CHIEN-CHI CHANG 56

Countless immigrant workers live in New York's Chinatown in inhuman conditions. What tourists don't see – the Magnum photographer's touching, long-term documentation project.

TECH TALK

LEICA M MONOCHROM 26

Leica enthusiasts have been thinking about it for a long time, and now it's become reality: a digital M with black & white sensor. We talk about and demonstrate its qualitative advantage.

APO-SUMMICRON-M 50 MM F/2 ASPH 36

This shows how sharp it can get when the art of error correction is pushed to the max. The new 50 mm Apo-Summicron is the best standard lens ever built.

LEICA X2 44

A model upgrade for Leica's classy compact camera: new sensor, much improved auto-focus, ergonomic optimization.

CENTRAL SHUTTER 48

All S lenses are immediately available with a central shutter. We explain all about the mechatronical masterpiece.

FURTHER LEICA NOVELTIES 52

V-Lux 40 with 20x zoom. S Adapter H to connect Hasselblad H lenses to the S2. M9-P »Edition Hermès«.
